Fun Flight (New for 2018)**

If you don't want your score posted or turned into the J&C, the Fun Flight is the flight for you. Anyone can select to play in the Fun Flight. Players in the Fun Flight will keep score, turn in their scorecards in at the end of their round, and otherwise play by all the same rules as everyone else in the tournament, however, their scores will not be posted anywhere or reported to the J&C. Fun Flight participants can also request who they would like to be paired with for round one. Fun Flight participants will all be paired together in threesomes for round two. Since the scores of the Fun Flight participants are not posted or otherwise compared to other players in the tournament, including Fun Flight participants, awards for three players in the Fun Flight will be determined by a random drawing.

Check here to play in the Fun Flight.
